There was no communications.

There was one observer from one of the Scout Troops.

Attorney Dyer advised that Keith Gorman didn't keep his arrangements for paying his fire bill and he will follow up with procedures for garnishment. Also there is nothing going on with the lawsuit on the mobile home.

Les gave an update on the activity in the police department. There is no word on any of the grants at this time (officer grant and talking to Brad Carson on a building grant). Also he discussed the problem of the alley behind the bank and city building and solving it by making it one way going west. This item will be done by Resolution and on the next agenda. He would like to have a disaster plan in place for the materials that will travel through Inola by rail.
